

Financial Planning

A guide on how to support yourself
financially while at college

Paying for Tuition

- Grants
- Scholarships
- Loans (Gain interest with time and requires your money)
- Financial Aid (FAFSA)

After the application process

Some expenses on your list may be:

- Transportation (How will you get where you need to go? Car/Bus/Bike?)
- Housing (Are you staying in a dorm or not?)
- Diet (How will you feed yourself?)
- School Supplies (Books, Laptop)

After The List Is Done

School Name	In State Tuition (2014-2015)	Out of State Tuition (2014-2015)	Living Expenses (On-Campus)	Living Expenses (Off-Campus)
Washington State University	$12,428	$25,510	$14,818	$14,818
University of Washington	$12,394	$33,513	$13,098	$13,098
Everett Community College	$92.26 / Per Credit (Above 18 Credits)	$268.26 / Per Credit (Above 18 Credits)	$9,630	Not Found

Evaluating Your Financial Plan

- Going to college in state vs. Out of state
- Community College vs. University
- Financial Aid, Grants, and Scholarships vs. Loans
- Working off campus vs. Work Study
- Living in dorms vs. Renting

—

Conclusion